

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 23 October 1967

Page 2

25X1 6. [ ] Made arrangements with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, for the Director to see Representative George H. Mahon tomorrow morning at 9:45 in Room H218 of the Capitol.

25X1 7. [ ] Mrs. Olga Watkins, in the office of Representative William Bates, called on behalf of Mr. Bates to get Lyman B. Kirkpatrick's full name and address. It was pointed out that Mr. Bates and Mr. Kirkpatrick are planning to appear on a TV panel show of some type on 19 December. His address was furnished.

25X1 8. [ ] Miss Takis, in the office of Senator Joseph Clark, called requesting some information for a young 16-year old constituent regarding future employment with the Agency. A brochure was forwarded to Miss Takis.

25X1 9. [ ] Left with Representative Thomas J. Meskill a suggested reply to the correspondence he had received from a ham radio operator concerning Radio Libertad.

25X1 10. [ ] Talked with Bill Korn, in the office of Senator Clifford P. Case. I referred to the newspaper article in the Washington Post commenting on the Agency's forwarding [ ] 25X1 [ ] members of Congress. I told Mr. Korn that if they would prefer not to receive these, we would discontinue sending them to the Senator. Mr. Korn appeared somewhat embarrassed about the whole situation and said he didn't know who had talked with [ ] about this. He said although the Senator looked at these items, most of them were of no particular value. However, when I offered again to discontinue sending the clippings, he said on rare occasions they did find these useful and, therefore, he would not want us to stop sending them.

25X1 11. [ ] Left a message for Jim Gehrig, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee staff, with regard to the Soviet Venus shot and our expectation that the Soviets would stage a space spectacular on Wednesday. This was by way of an alert to Mr. Gehrig.